

County Junior Captain, Carys led the rest of the girls at their first coaching session with County Coach Tom Hodgson at Eden GC. Tom started the session with some warmup exercises, stressing how important it is to warm up before heading out onto the golf course. The group then moved on to putting drills and finally to target golf challenges in pairs with elements of match play

